

Quality Community Prevention Self-Assessment

Geographic Location	Completed by	Date
Skills/capacity Assessment: Rate your organization's or partnership's ability to:		Circle One: Level of Capacity/skill (1=Low, 5=High)
Comprehensive approach
Engage in activities at all six levels of the Spectrum of Prevention <sup>1</sup>		Not Sure	1	2	3	4	5
Identify potential policy/organizational practice objectives		Not Sure	1	2	3	4	5
Assess potential partners and opposition and understand political feasibility of initiatives		Not Sure	1	2	3	4	5
Collaboration
Maintain productive formal and informal relationships with leaders from health and other sectors		Not Sure	1	2	3	4	5
Form/lead a coalition		Not Sure	1	2	3	4	5
Assess community priorities		Not Sure	1	2	3	4	5
Implement substantive community engagement		Not Sure	1	2	3	4	5
Cultivate strong ties to communities that are marginalized based on factors such as race, ethnicity, economic status, sexual orientation, gender, age, immigration status, or geographic location.		Not Sure	1	2	3	4	5
Leadership
Make the case for policy and environmental change		Not Sure	1	2	3	4	5
Marshall evidence and data to support initiatives		Not Sure	1	2	3	4	5
Enact model organizational practices		Not Sure	1	2	3	4	5
Connect clinical and community activity
Mobilize patient population for community advocacy		Not Sure	1	2	3	4	5
Monitor and use patient health data to analyze community health trends and needs		Not Sure	1	2	3	4	5

<sup>1</sup>Six levels of the Spectrum of Prevention include: Influencing policy and legislation; Changing organizational practices; Fostering coalitions and networks; Educating providers; Promoting community education; and Strengthening individual knowledge and skills.

Project Assessment

What successes have you achieved?

What do you consider the greatest challenges moving forward?

Which of the following training sessions would you be most interested in? (circle up to 3)

The How and Why of Policy

Making the Case: communicating prevention

Comprehensive strategy development

8 Steps to Effective Coalition Building

Building multi-field partnerships

Emerging strategies to improve health food & activity environments

Emerging strategies to prevent violence

Assessing community health factors

8 steps to a community-centered health home

Other trainings that would be useful: